“ Dieter was such a lovely, kindhearted man who cared deeply for all those he knew. Carlo and I will always remember his & Monika's warm hospitality in Hamilton and his great sense of humour too. I also remember dancing with him at your wedding, a true gentleman.

Sending our love and hugs of strength to you all.
May you find comfort in sharing memories of the good times together x x

“ My sincere condolences to the entire family. I would meet the Wrona family out walking around Forest Glen. My description of the man is gentle, kind, friendly, soft-spoken with a great laugh. He was taken much too soon and will be missed by everyone who had the pleasure of meeting him.

“ Dieter was a very kind, warmhearted soul, with an endearing sense of humour. We worked together at Denningers during the 1980s. He was an intuitive and supportive work colleague, who would come down and pick up the cash drawers at the end of our cashier shift, always understanding with a smile.
