OBITUARY FOR DON SURRENDRA NARANJIT

Don Surrendra Naranjit, age 69, passed away peacefully on May 27th, 2021 at Juravinski Hospital in Hamilton, Canada. He was born in Couva, Trinidad. He was the son of Hetty Naranjit and predeceased by his father, Wilfred Naranjit.

Don was the loving and devoted husband of Sandra (Kamla) Naranjit (Jagdipsingh), the dedicated father to Darrydon Naranjit (son) and Avedon Naranjit-Kurjah (daughter). He treasured his children and embraced every moment with them. He especially loved his role as Grandpa, also called Grandmoo. He was absolutely adored by his five grandchildren - Darrius Naranjit, Shenelle Naranjit, Avelexi Kurjah, Alexius Kurjah and Darilissa Naranjit. He was the beloved father-in-law of Alex Kurjah and Melissa Ramserran.

Don was a cherished brother to David Naranjit, Darryl Naranjit, Gerard Naranjit and Carol-Ann Naranjit. He was a dear brother-in-law to Sherina Naranjit, Christiana Naranjit, Lynne Lacey, David New, Jules & Stella Jagdipsingh, Monty and Gail Jagdipsingh, Sarah & Paul Protain and Praim & Molly Singh. He was admired by his nephews and nieces: Camille, Stephanie, Sheri-Ann, Steven, Giselle, Lynne, Shawn, Stephon, Marlon, Duane, Natasha, Sherwin, Mandy (deceased), Renee, Shireen and their families. He was also loved by his many cousins and extended family in Trinidad, Canada, USA and UK.

He was fortunate to have many friends as students, teachers, lecturers and colleagues. Don was a respected co-worker and touched the lives of many over the years. He was the close friend of Dr. Joel Sinanan, Dr. Naresh Armoogum, Jeanelle Rampersad and many more. He will be remembered by many more friends, teachers, lecturers and colleagues.

Most of all Don loved his life partner and wife, children and grandchildren. He instilled in his children and grandchildren strong values, that have and will continue to serve them well. His efforts have significantly contributed to the standard and quality of life we enjoyed as a family. He will be dearly missed and forever in their hearts.

The family of Don Naranjit would like to thank everyone for their kind words, their support and their love at this trying time. A special thanks to all the doctors and nurses who worked tirelessly and cared for “Donald” at Juravinski Hospital and Juravinski Cancer Centre.

Don will be cremated in Canada in the presence of his immediate family. We hope to bring his ashes to Trinidad to be buried with his father at Balmain, Couva as per his last wish. A memorial service will be held later in the year for Don Naranjit in Trinidad.

CELEBRATION OF DON NARANJIT'S LIFE

Don Surrendra Naranjit grew up on De Gannes Street, Couva, Trinidad with his siblings and parents. He attended Exchange RC Primary School, Couva and Presentation College, Chaguanas. During this time, his life was filled with fun playing with his siblings and cousins and getting into mischief.

Along with his family, Don migrated to Caledonia, Canada in 1967, where he attended Caledonia High School. They eventually moved to Hamilton, Canada where he completed Grade 13 at Hill Park Secondary School. He later attended McMaster University in Hamilton where he graduated with a B.Sc. in Mathematics (Major) and Psychology (Minor). Don then completed his Diploma in Education and Master of Education at the University of West Indies, Trinidad.

Don met his wife Sandra (Kamla) over forty (40) years ago, they fell in love and had two (2) children. He was family-oriented and spent most of his time passing on his many skills to his children. He loved spending time and playing with his five (5) grandchildren. Don was compassionate and had humility in every role that he played. He was a true gentleman, going out of his way to help many. He had a “can do” spirit, and persistence in his varied practical skills around the house. He was a role model to many people and helped children, students, teachers and friends.

Don lived a full life, personally and professionally. He became a teacher and taught at St. James Secondary School and Chaguanas Senior Comprehensive School. He was very motivated and determined to further his career. He later became a Lecturer at Valsayn Teacher's College. He started working at the Ministry of Education as a Curriculum Officer (Mathematics) and later was promoted to Curriculum Coordinator (Mathematics), and then to District Coordinator. He subsequently retired in 2011. Don started contract work as a Continuous Assessment Component (CAC) Monitor in Caroni after he retired, in which he was responsible for CAC of Secondary Entrance Assessment (SEA) with other monitors.

For the last six (6) years, Don struggled with many sicknesses, but he never complained and continued to keep a smile on his face. He was diagnosed with cancer and fought to live, in order to be with his family. He never returned to his home country, Trinidad because of the pandemic in 2020 and 2021.

Don Naranjit was described by colleagues “as a joy to work with”, “always smiling”, “always encouraging”, “gave good advice”, “sparkling personality”, “astute and intelligent gentleman”. His students and fellow teachers described him as “an excellent lecturer”, “always kind towards me”, “a kind and gentle soul”, “very pleasant and knowledgeable” and “a genuine teacher/lecturer”.

Interesting facts about Don:

“ A Beautiful, Caring, Kind Soul With A Heart of Gold

I met Don very shortly after arriving in Canada in 1971. He was one of the students at Mac who welcomed new foreign students. Although there were others in the group it was clear that Don was more or less THE welcoming committee. He was quick to help us learn the ropes. He was our go to guy for many things not only because he was the only one as far as I can remember, who had access to a car, but because he was so kind and caring and tender hearted. I have never heard him raise his voice for ANY reason at all at anyone.

There were many things to like about Don, his quiet understated and biting sense of humour was one of the things I liked the most. He often had us laughing very hard and almost non stop at times. David & Darryl his two older brothers were also at Mac then but I am quite sure that Don had more friends hanging out at 67 Kirkland at any one time and overall, than David and Darryl combined, over our university years. His parents welcomed us all with open arms no matter when or how often we dropped in to "lime".

Don was very special to me as he helped navigate through a very difficult time in my life. His support was integral in keeping me steady and grounded. He had a beautiful way of calming choppy waters without drama and fuss.

We lost direct contact when he returned to Trinidad to establish his career but ever so often my twin sister would run into him and bring me greetings from him. Whenever he visited Canada he would call even though we did not always get to see each other in person. We kept in touch more often as time went on especially after he retired. Sadly our last planned visit was postponed due to his health complications. Thanks to Covid restrictions, we never got to reschedule a visit. Now our next visit will have to be in paradise.

I extend deep condolences to his wife, children & grandchildren, his Mum, his brothers David, Darryl & Gerry, his sister Mirabi and the rest of the family and friends.

Don I loved you like a brother because in my heart you were a brother to me. I will miss you dearly. Rest in Peace my very special friend and brother.

Love,

Cheryl

Beautiful memories

Renée - June 01 at 08:47 PM

“ Wherever a gentle soul has been, there is a trail of beautiful memories to keep and treasure. ”

I have so many wonderful memories of my brother Don:
The games we played in the guava patch with David, Darryl and cousin Tony;
running around and around our house until exhausted with cousin Andrea; rubbing coconut oil on our body so we won't get licks from Mama for bathing in the river;
fighting each other to exit our treehouse after finding a snake in it; leepaying a cricket pitch with cow dung; our bamboo raft coming apart in the middle of the river and none of us could swim; trying to understand how Potsy dislocated his hip and his girlfriend broke her nose in the same accident; jumping off the cantilever with an umbrella to see if we could float down (it didnt work); using bedsheets tied together to climb down from our 2nd story bedroom window; going to a Holiday Inn carnival fete with 7 of us stuffed into a Ford Escort; our kids hiding so they won't have to eat your breakfast porridge; having to share a room for almost 20 years; being in the same schools and sometimes same classes for 15 years; moving most of the Caribbean students at McMaster university with our dad's car and hoping he wouldn't notice the gas gauge; leading the whole Curriculum class in laughter during my presentation; laughing our heads off when the bank teller thought you were my grandfather.
All priceless and eternal.

“ A great big chunk of my life growing up in Trinidad, the Narnajit house was my 2nd home. Aunty Kams and mom being the only sisters, it was only natural, they spend many many days together and of course, Im right there in tow. Ave, Darry and I grew up like sibilings, I definitely came to see them as such and Uncle Don, the welcoming face when I walked(possibly ran) through the door. Always a smile, always a joke, always a laugh. Most likely the main reason I felt/feel so at ease and welcomed. Uncle Don made everyone feel welcomed and also showed interest in you. My husband definitely felt this from the first meeting, to every time after.

Aunty Kams and Uncle Don together built a safe, positive and loving environment,not only for their children but anyone that spent any time there. You wanted to be in their space, chat with Uncle Don. Ave and Darry won't realize until they start reading these messages but they weren't the only ones lucky and blessed to have him in their lives...

Will forever be missed, rest well, love you Uncle Don...

Renee & Richard.

Renée Protain-Pacheco - June 01 at 02:14 PM

“ It's said that the mark of a great father is to have his son turn out to be a better man than he.

As his sister, I knew when my dad looked at the man Don became he felt that way, and I have seen the same twinkle in Don's eye when he looked at Darry and Ave.

Mammy is broken hearted for Kamla and the children and grandchildren and feeling the loss of the son with whom she spent so much time, even during the pandemic lockdown when he was so ill he and Kamla welcomed her to spend time when she herself was not well.

Last year, in a discussion ranging from politics to philosophy and family I must have been harping on about the unfairness of life, Donny said that he had kept an something to himself: when he was a little boy something bad happened to his brothers, I can't remember if he said it was an illness or injury, for they were always crossing the street to the hospital to be bandaged up for some play injury or the other - and that night in his prayers he told God he would take on all the family's suffering if God gave it to him instead of them. Truly, I didn't know what to say. And I didn't intend to share it with anyone. That was between us. But it explained so very much in his life. And it gave me comfort. I told Kams a short time ago and I hope it gives his family and friends an understanding of the man, as it did me.

Donny was accomplished in woodworking early back when Daddy and his young sons carved items in beautiful local woods for the church sanctuary in Couva - lectern, altar boards, and so on; he did fabulous oil paintings in university which he sold to pay for sundries in school; car repair; skills he learned to build his home - welding, electrical; anything he put his hand to.

Except maybe scaffolding ... Darry will remember he and his father on the scaffolding outside the house, feeling the whole thing collapse, falling off and nearly breaking his neck.

Donny was an expert at imparting knowledge, judging character - he was master of that, encouraging, prodding, nagging people to do better for themselves and their family, playing "all fours" with his brothers and jumping up to slap down the cards, champion card player. He loved animals - starting from childhood, when he brought home a little puppy his friend Steve gave him tucked in his school uniform and our mother had to treat both of them for fleas! He was a master chef - his oil-free geera pork and soup to die for! He took responsibility for home maintenance chores even when he first returned to Trinidad and lived with Mama, our grandmother at her home which had been next door to ours when we lived there. In one of his hilarious dialect letters to Mummy and Daddy he described his efforts at domestic duties: while Mama was away with Uncle Sonny and his family in Caracas he had cleaned and sprayed out her house for cockroaches and there were hardly any left, had made fried chicken one day which had too much salt, and other days made stewed chicken and cabbage rolls which were more than good. He tried animal husbandry - goats, dogs, chickens. Even raising cascadura fish in his pond in the backyard only for them to burrow a tunnel out in the mud! And he could laugh - at himself, at others, at me!

Donny could laugh. He loved to laugh. Ringing, crescendoing, boisterous or chuckling with his hand over his mouth shoulders raised in conspiratorial mirth.

But most of all he loved Darry and Ave, doted on Darius, Shennelle, Ava, Big Head and Darylissa and was supremely satisfied and proud that he found his wife who was the love of his life. In 1976 when his old paternal aunts were adding the word marriage to his vocabulary and harassing him to get married he wrote to Daddy and Mammy asking them what they thought about marriage. Asking if someone could live alone and be happy. Concluding that if ever he met a girl he could communicate with and trust completely he may think about it. He hit the jackpot with Kamla.

Blessed are they who mourn; for they will be com

“ Uncle Don was a good person. Hw has been a part of my life for at least forty years. He has been a great influence on my choice of profession and giving advice on how to approach it. He was a great family man as well. I thank him for being there when Priyanka stayed there everyday after school, waiting to be picked up....giving her little talks and advice, as well as great sandwiches!
On behalf of myself, Tara, Priyanka and Sanjana....we love you and will miss you greatly.

“ My deepest condolences to the family for this loss. May your hearts be filled with the beautiful memories of happy times you have spent together celebrating a well-lived life with Donny. You fought a courageous fight and never complained. Donny was a kind man, a true gentleman, always putting others in front of him. We played together as young men and attended school together. We got into trouble together and accepted the discipline that came from our parents. Donny was my biggest supporter when I was a young pre-teen running through the roads and cane fields of Couva with the hope that one day I would become an Olympic athlete. The quality that appeals to me the most was his compassion. Perhaps those are not stars that we see in the sky, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy. We know that the mark Donny left is a great one, and because of this he will never really be gone. Death is not the end of life; it is the beginning of an eternal journey so live on my cousin.

“ I will always remember Mr. Naranjit from VTC (2000-2003) days as my Math Lecturer. I still don't like Math BUT Mr. Naranjit's personality shone so bright during the sessions that they went by quickly. What made him a stand-out human being was his ability to interact with everyone on every level and yet make each person feel important. I greatly appreciated his quick wit and sometimes dry humour.

May you his family find comfort in knowing that he made a positive and endearing lasting impression on all and may God welcome him into eternal rest.

“ Uncle Don was a highly creative and energetic person, a great listener who was always willing to engage in purposeful banter. Uncle Don would go out of his way to make me & my family feel valued and empowered, he welcomed me into his family circle without a second thought. Everytime he engaged me in constructive & thoughtful conversation, I was always left with a strong sense of reflection & motivation. I will always remember uncle Don as a pivotal source of inspiration to my life. He epitomizes what a true gentleman should be and what we as fathers and men should strive to become.
