“ Elaine and I met in McMaster University and whenever I did see her we would chat about anything under the sun and enjoy it. She was bright and good and had a lovely sense of humour. She will be missed. Jim.

“ The Moores lived next to us growing up in Burlington on Grenallen Drive. Eliane was like a second mom to all of us Glancie kids. She would come over daily and we would always smile when we heard that friendly familiar voice “Hello Ida its Elaine”. Our parents were close with each other, playing cards, having meals together, swims in each others pool. Whenever we needed anything we could count on Bob and Elaine. She will be missed in many different ways by so many. Her son Mark has welcomed her home with the biggest hug imaginable. My dad and my Meghan will celebrate her arrival with them. God’s peace be with you all.

“ Angie and I moved in next to Elaine and Bob 25 years ago. Angie was 8 months pregnant with our first child Lauren. On that hot July day, we had all of our family members sitting in the back yard waiting to help us move in while the previous owners finished moving out. As we sat on the grass our new neighbours Elaine and Bob starting walking over with lawn chairs for us to sit on to make the wait more comfortable. This was the beginning of a wonderful relationship. Elaine would chat with Lauren on the deck about girl things and Bob would chase butterflies with or son Connor. Every summer Elaine would give me tips on gardening. She would smile when she pointed out that I just ripped out some beautiful perennials thinking they were weeds. We kept this to ourselves. Elaine was never short of conversation. She always had a story to tell or recipe to share. Both Lauren now 25 and Connor 22 have grown up with Elaine in their life and have expressed how sad they are that she is gone. We are all sad she is gone, but we will have 25 years of wonderful memories.
Thinking of you.

“ AS one of the "Collective" from the gym, Elaine always had time for a coffee to then sit and have a chit chat. I will remember her common sense approach to life , her quick wit, and her endless suggestions of culinary tips whenever il asked" anyone have any ideas of something new and good to make?."

Then of course is always the story of how she became known as "Little Elaine" amongst the Collective.

Michelle and Bob are in our prayers,

Elaine & Barrington Simon
