

Ross Gerald Andrews

December 4, 1926 - September 12, 2019

It is with great sadness that I announce the death of my dear husband Ross, on September 12, 2019, at the age of 92. Ross was a wonderful father to our three children, Kathy, Tom, and Bill. We also have nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren, in whom we have taken great pleasure as we watched them grow.

Ross was well known in the Hamilton area for his very successful jewellery business. He and his brother Ron established Andrews Brothers Jewellers in 1952, and they were later joined in business by brothers Bill and John. His brother Gord was Professor of Engineering at the University of Waterloo. His sister June settled in BC many years ago. An avid sailor in the 1970s, Ross also enjoyed playing snooker, golf, tennis, and bridge. In accordance with his wishes, no services will be held. He was cremated this past week. Ross will be especially missed for his wry sense of humour, which he maintained until the very end.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the Hamilton SPCA at <https://hbspca.com/>

“ I was saddened to hear of uncle Ross's passing because he was the last of my favourite uncles. As a little girl, we spent most Sundays at our grandparent's farm with all my aunts, uncles and cousins. We were very close growing up. I have many wonderful memories! I shall also post some pictures.

“ Anna I have only met you once or twice but I feel like I know both you and Ross from all Kathy has told me about you both. He was a great husband and a loving father. He lived a long life and now he is at peace. Take care of yourself. Denise

“ My Dad Ross was the best Dad you could ask for...wise, talented, humorous, fair, ambitious and I miss seeing his face light up whenever I visited. My heart is broken.
Love you Dad, your 'Kath' xo

“ Dear Anna, The loss of dear Ross has been heartbreaking for you all. It is always devastating to lose a loved one, especially so when you have shared much of your life as a couple. Partners in love and life for 65 + years is truly a testimony to your devotion and commitment to each other. May a lifetime of love and so many precious memories sustain you now and bring comfort as you move forward during these difficult days.
Ross was an exceptional man, a wonderful husband, father and grandfather. He was well respected in the business community and a good friend to many. You will miss him terribly. He lives on forever in your hearts and will always be near in thought. Ivan bought my engagement / wedding rings at Andrew's so whenever I look at them I will think of Ross. We send our heartfelt condolences to you, Kathy and all of your family. xo
