

Sheila Isabel Rice

October 3, 1934 - December 3, 2017

It is with regret that the Rice Family announces the passing of our mother, Sheila Isabel Rice, at 7:10 on Sunday morning, December 3, 2017. Her death came after being diagnosed with pancreatic cancer, which was followed by her rapid decline.

She is survived by her three remaining sons, Stuart, Gregory and Ronald Rice and their wives, Theresa, Laura and Lynn. She was predeceased by her husband, Ronald John Rice and her youngest son, Kevin Darrin Rice. She was also the sister of Douglas Cameron, who was tragically killed by a drunk driver in 1960.

Donations in her memory can be made to The Salvation Army Toronto Grace Health Centre, 650 Church St., Toronto, ON or The Humber River Memorial Hospital.

“ I hope this reaches you in time, but we are having a memorial gathering for my mother at The Alelxandra Yacht Club Sunday between 1:00 and 6:00, 2 Stadium Road, being the old TipTop Tailor building on the lake front. If you or any of your family would like to drop by and introduce yourself, we'll be there.

Thanks

“ I never knew your Mom but she sure raised four beautiful guys and it must have been tough as a single parent. My sympathies to Stuart, Ron and Greg. It's especially hard to lose a parent shortly before Christmas, as I know myself. Thinking of you.
