

Steven Charles Ninham

May 7, 1970 - June 29, 2020

It is with broken hearts that we announce the passing of Steven Charles Ninham, at home with his soulmate, partner, and friend Martha Lynn Trebilcock by his side on Monday June 29th, 2020 surrounded by much love, care, and peace. Loved Father to Jena Ninham, Taya Ninham, and Zoe Ninham (the bright lights of his life always). Beloved son to Lynn Ninham and the late Earl Ninham and dearly missed by his brother Brian Ninham. Steve was a dear and very much loved bonus Dad to Lukas and Jamie Karahalios, who will never forget his love and influence on their lives. He was so important to many other young people that he influenced and took under his kind wing. Steve (Super Steve) is very dearly missed by all and will never be forgotten. Steve loved all of his friends and family very deeply and intensely. Steve will always be remembered for his energy, his amazing skills in the kitchen as a chef, his ability to use any form of music for magic, and his ability to light up a room with his energy and spirit. A celebration of Steve's life will be held in the coming months when restrictions are loosened. Donations to the Canadian Cancer Society would be greatly appreciated.

“ We are still feeling so sad of course, but finding comfort in the knowledge that your spirit is shining down on all of us but most important onto Martha and all your family.

“ So very sorry for the loss such a clearly great guy. A quick smile and a friendly word, always. I wish we had longer to get to know you, Steve. Rest easy, in peace.

“ Our “Scuba Steve”. You, our friend, are already missed greatly by so many. A loyal friend who wanted nothing more than to make others happy. When you laughed, out came the huge smile, the lowering of your head and then full out crazy laugh ... man we miss that. The “right??”, and the “I know dude!!” And the “I love you guys”. How do we repay your kindness to so many... we promise to protect you and your wishes. We will protect your memory and those who you wanted fiercely protected. We will never forget any of our journey. You deserve to rest in total and utter peace, where the fish are plenty for the early morning drop of the line. We will send a message to our loved ones who made the journey before you (man you’ll love some of those crazy characters), you’ll be in good company.

Our hearts hurt In a way that is difficult to describe. Thank you for finding us in the world Steve, we are forever changed by your love. Xoxo LA & Pat
